No. GMDA/GEN/24/2018/1

Dated 15th March 2018

PUBLIC NOTICE

This is for kind information of citizens that GMDA has completed the work of conversion of the Old DC Bungalow which is situated atop the hillock in Pan Bazar, into a heritage Centre, which has been christened as the Brahmaputra River Heritage Centre- 'Bahniman'.

The Centre perseveres to provide a platform for displaying the culture, tradition and heritage of the settlements that have evolved along the banks of the Brahmaputra over the centuries and hence the name. The Centre through its Heritage Exhibition initiative is focused on making a repository of heritage artifacts and items which hold immense historic and cultural value. In this regard, GMDA seeks to source such heritage elements which are the prized possession of our citizens. The artifacts will be put on display in the heritage section. Citizens may either loan the item to GMDA or they may decide to donate. The artifacts may be of the following categories (not exhaustive)- handicraft items, jewellery, coins, utensils, idols, statues, paintings, manuscripts, maps etc.

GMDA invites expression of interest from the citizens firstly through an email. It is requested that in the text of the email, it be mentioned in short the historical significance of the object along with a few clearly visible attached colour photographs of the item. It may also be mentioned whether it will be provided on loan to GMDA or donated. The items for display will be selected based on the terms and conditions decided by Authority.

The email for the correspondence is brahmaputrariverheritage@gmail.com
